

Medicine and Health through Time Check List: DISEASE AND INFECTION
1750-PRESENT DAY

Read through the questions. If you can answer them, tick them. If you cannot answer them you need to research the question and write up the answer so I can mark it

Disease and Infection:

- 1: What is the theory of spontaneous generation?
- 2: What is the Germ Theory?
- 3: Who developed the germ theory and when?
- 4: Who was Edward Jenner and what did he discover?
- 5: What arguments are there for and against the use of Jenner's discovery?
- 6: What did Robert Koch discover?
- 7: Why is there a debate between Koch and Pasteur?
- 8: What impact did Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole have on medicine?
- 9: What role have Florey and Chain made in the fight against disease and infection?
- 10: Who was Fleming and what did he discover?
- 12: Who discovered DNA and how?
- 13: How can it be argued that DNA is the greatest medical discovery?
- 14: What does WHO stand for?
- 15: What alternative medicines can be used to treat illness in the modern day?