

Medicine and Health through Time Check List: THE MIDDLE AGES

Read through the questions. If you can answer them, tick them. If you cannot answer them you need to research the question and write up the answer so I can mark it

The Middle Ages

- 1- When did the Black death arrive in England?

- 2: What percentage of people in England are estimated to have died due to the Black death?

- 3: Which areas of England were hit the hardest by the Black Death?

- 4: What were the two strains of Black Death called and what were their symptoms?

- 5: How did people react/ try to treat the Black Death?

- 6: How did medicine differ between Christians and Muslims during the Middle Ages?

- 7: How did Christianity lead to a decline in medicine?

- 8: Did medicine decline during the Middle ages?

- 9: How were doctors trained during in the Middle ages?

- 10: How did the fall of the Roman empire impact on Medieval medicine?

- 12: What surgery was used during the Middle Ages? Was it natural or super natural?