

Medicine and Health through Time Check List: Surgery and Anatomy

1750-PRESENT DAY

Read through the questions. If you can answer them, tick them. If you cannot answer them you need to research the question and write up the answer so I can mark it

Surgery and Anatomy:

- 1: What does PIB stand for in surgery and anatomy?
- 2 :Who was Simpson and what did he discover?
- 3: Why was there opposition to James Simpson?
- 4: Who discovered antiseptics?
- 5: Why was the discovery of antiseptics important?
- 6: When and who discovered that blood transfusions could be used?
- 7: How did the World Wars contribute to the development of surgery?
- 8: Who was Archibald MaIndoe and why is he important?
- 9 :Why is Christian Bernard so important to the development of surgery?
- 10: How far did surgery improve between 1750-1900?
- 11: Who had the greatest impact on the development of surgery and why?